

6 November 2020

Dear friends,

Sunday Mass

It was wonderful for us to be with some of you last week and to offer Mass in our churches last weekend. Please God, this will grow in the future with the easing of restrictions.

Bookings for Mass will be via the trybooking website. Booking will be open from 9am Saturday morning.

If you have any thoughts or observations, please contact your local Mission Team member or Parish Council leader.

Act of Spiritual Communion

As you participate in Mass on-line, I invite you to make the Act of Spiritual Communion during Mass. You might also like to include this in your daily or regular prayers.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Lord Jesus Christ, I believe that you are in the Blessed Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I long for you in my soul. Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. As though you have already come, I embrace you and unite myself entirely to you; never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

'Vision for the Future'

Thank you to those who joined us on Thursday evening for the Archbishop's presentation; it was great to have over 100 people present.

Please join us again this week (Thurs 12th Nov, 7pm) for a presentation by Jude Hennessy from the Diocese of Wollongong. Jude has wide experience in parish and Church life with catechesis, outreach and public speaking in a very down to earth manner.

You can book your place here ....

Support of our Communities

Thank you to those who generously support our communities with your prayers and financial support during this time. As our normal sources of income (our collections) have stopped, we are extremely grateful to those who continue their contributions. Whilst Masses and sacraments have stopped, the bills have not!

If you would like information about direct debit options, please contact your local parish office:

Sacrament of Reconciliation

The Sacrament of Reconciliation and Penance (Confessions) will continue to be available at Stella Maris church Beaumaris on Saturday morning from 10-11am.

November

In November, Catholics traditionally remember those who have passed before us. During this month, I invite you to pray for those in your communities who have passed away during this year, and particularly in the past months during the restrictions.

As Catholics, we have the custom of 'November Masses', offering Mass for those family and friends who have died and for all the faithful departed. It is a great act of charity to pray for the dead, and to recall those who have nobody to pray for them. The Mass is the greatest prayer that we have.

At the moment, we are unable to have November envelopes or a 'Book of the Dead' in our churches to write in. If you would like a Mass offered for deceased loved ones you can go to www.baysidecatholicmission.org and the tab 'Support Us', and indicate in the description section your November Mass intention.

*Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord,
May perpetual light shine upon them.
May their souls, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.*

This coming week our Stewardship Team will meet on Friday night and we continue our series of Talks on Thursday night.

Please pass on this email to anyone else you know who might not be receiving it. I know that not all parishioners have their email addresses registered with the parish. Please pass on the news to anyone you know.

May the Lord bless and protect you and your loved ones.

Sincerely in Christ,

Father David Cartwright
Moderator, Bayside Mission
