COLLECTION for FLOOD VICTIMS :

Today after Masses there will be a Leaving Collection for the Victims of the Queensland Floods. This will be sent to Bishop Bill Morris of Toowoomba. It will be used to help those affected by the Toowoomba flooding and those in the Lockyer Valley near Toowoomba of which the destroyed town of Grantham was part. Many of the people who lost their lives were in this area. There are no arrangements for tax deduction available at the moment for this Appeal.

There is also a St Vincent de Paul Society Appeal organized by the Central Office in Melbourne

AUSTRALIA DAY :

On Wednesday of this week. Mass will be at 11am. We do need to encourage the spiritual dimension of being Australian and a primary way of doing that is to listen to God's word and celebrate the Eucharist at Mass.

SECURITY in the PARISH :

We have had two break-ins over the last few weeks. We need to tighten our security and keep an eye out for anything suspicious that any of us may be in a position to see.

We have changed some of our arrangements with keys already and will look further into our security arrangements. (Last Sunday I was concerned about a missing key.....that has been located.)

The Church will remain open in so far as that is possible but the hours when it is open, will be a little more restricted.
