Can you help?

SANDRINGHAM INTER-CHURCH COUNCIL

Ms Noelle Pratt has been an excellent secretary to the Sandringham Inter-Church Council for many years. She has resigned from the position and therefore we are looking for a Minute Secretary for the work of the group. This involves eleven monthly meetings in a year, typing the minutes and preparing the next agenda.

Assistance will be given to help the new volunteer. There are three members for each of our four churches in addition to the clergy. We have a yearly program to promote friendship, study, cooperation and communication between the faith groups who are neighbours in Sandringham.

Please speak to Gilda, Jackie or Father Frank if you can join us.

PARLIAMENTARY ENQUIRY INTO CHILD ABUSE

The submission of the Catholic Church has been accepted and can now be read at www.facingthetruth.org.au I would urge those interested to read the submission in which the Church acknowledges its mistakes, and to access this internet site which offers the possibility of subscribing to a newsletter for further information in order to be further informed of the Church's response to the ongoing enquiry - Fr Peter Conroy
