MERCY HEALTH AND THE FORMER FERNHILL HOSTEL for the Aged have cared for the Sandringham community for nearly 40 years. Currently under redevelopment, the new Mercy Place Fernhill will care for up to 120 older people of all faiths, backgrounds and care needs.

To find out more about the flexible and affordable care options in our modern, well-equipped home, join us for a free community 'drop in' event. Sample room furnishings and architectural design drawings will be on display and Mercy Health carers and staff will be available to answer your questions.

Event details

- Time/Date: 10am to 12 noon, Saturday 12 October
- Venue: MacKillop Hall, Sacred Heart Parish Primary School
- Entry via Sandringham Road, light refreshments will be served

Register to attend before Thursday 10 October by contacting:

ASYLUM SEEKER APPEAL

Following the very positive response to our recent appeal for baby clothing, we invite you to join us in supporting the Brigidine Asylum Seekers Project.

During the month of September we have focused on cleaning products to assist people settle into their new homes.

You are invited to buy an extra product with your weekly shopping and put it into the basket which will be in the foyer of the church for the final week THIS weekend of 29 September.

Kitchen, laundry and bathroom products would all be most welcome.

Thank you for your support.

VISIT TO REMEXIO:

Once again this year, members of the Social Justice Group are visiting Remexio to continue to develop our relationship with our twin parish and with Fr David. At present Heather McGrath and Judy Lamb are in East Timor.

They will be back early in October with news of past achievements and future needs to share with you.

Please remember them, Fr David and the people of Remexio in your prayers.
