REMEXIO NEWS

We have a teacher, Zelina da Costa Silva, from a village further up the mountain in Tulatequeu. Zelina is here until September 16 when we fly back to Remexio.

Zelina has had experience at Sacred Heart School learning how we teach literacy and is learning English at Kilbreda College and Wellsprings in Dandenong.

Last week she attended school camp at Myrtleford enjoying our wonderful winter, the extreme opposite of what she is used to.

If you would like to learn about Timor Leste, host Zelina for a meal or day outing please contact Heather McGrath through the Parish office.

We celebrate Social Justice Sunday on 27 September.

This year's social justice statement is titled

"For Those Who've Come Across the Seas: Justice for refugees and asylum seekers" .

The statement addresses the divisive national debate over asylum seekers, especially those who arrive by boat.

It reminds all Australians of the need to welcome and comfort those who have fled here from terror and danger, and to live out the example of Jesus, who never turned his back on those who were lost or suffering.
