HOLY, HOLY, HOLY LORD

The "Holy, holy, holy Lord" a text inspired by the vision of Isaiah 6:2-3, was sung in the morning office of the synagogue. It was in the east that it made its way into the eucharistic prayer, perhaps through the influence of Jewish-Christians. By the mid-fifth century its incorporation in the prayer was generally accepted in the west. Even though this chant somewhat interrupts the flow of ideas, it finds a logical link in the evocation of the multitudes of angels and the seraphim which has from ancient times concluded the preface.

The verse "Blessed is he" is the acclamation used by the people to greet Christ at his solemn entrance into Jerusalem (cf. Matthew 21:9). By the mid-sixth century it was already joined to the Sanctus in Gaul, and a century later in Rome as well. Cont.....

HOLY HOLY HOLY LORD

Although the Sanctus was originally sung by the whole assembly, by the early Middle Ages the singing was assigned to the choir. Eventually the priest continued on with the eucharistic prayer during the singing. The development of complex melodies resulted in the Benedictus being sung after the words of institution.

Today the Sanctus and Benedictus are again joined as an acclamation sung or said by priest and people as a conclusion to the preface.

In this acclamation the assembly responds to the presider's invitation to join all creation in giving praise to the Father through Christ. With one voice the whole communion of saints gives glory to God.

FEED-IN GROUPS FOR THE PLENARY COUNCIL:

In the last two weeks of November there will be several opportunities for all of us to have our say on the Plenary Council. The Leadership Group will be organizing this while I am away. There is also a similar process afoot in the school for parents, teachers and all concerned to have their say.

All the input will be forwarded to the facilitator of the Plenary Council.

There will be a group of 4 to 6, each with a group leader and a scribe who will note all the input.

If you know people outside our regular congregations whom you think ought to be heard, please inform them and let them know that their input would be welcome.

There are clipboards in the foyer this morning for you to sign up and show your interest. There will be groups at various times during those weeks.

Don't be hesitant to have your say.

If you have any questions please speak to myself or any member of the Leadership Group : Kristin Allen, Peter Connell, Sarah Lachal, Megan McCartney, Erin Macdonald, Adrian Power, Mark Shannon.
