WED JUNE 12th IS WORLD DAY AGAINST CHILD LABOUR

Child Labour is a global human rights issue that affects us all. Child labour refers to work that has been prohibited for children because of their age or because of the nature of the tasks involved.

Children are denied their right to a childhood, to a good education and to grow up safe and protected from harm

Today, of all children aged 5—7 years, 152 million are in child labour, of which 73 million are in hazardous work.
