PARISH NOTICES

12th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

THE SPIRIT OF TRUTH WILL BEAR WITNESS TO ME, SAYS THE LORD,
AND YOU ALSO WILL BE MY WITNESSES.

Mass will be available on the Parish web site every Sunday

www.sandringhamcatholic.org.au

CHANGED REGULATIONS FOR ATTENDING MASS:

From next Sunday—June 28th—we will be able to have 50 people at each Mass. Members of the Leadership Group will be at each Mass to facilitate the taking of names and contact details of those attending (to ensure our limited numbers), to organize the cleaning of the Church after each Mass and to help out with any questions or difficulties.

We will have three Masses as usual from next week: Sunday evening at 5pm (please note not 6pm). Sunday morning at 9am and 11am.

WEEKDAY MASS

There will be Mass at 11.30am (not 11) this coming Wednesday, June 24th

MASS AT MERCY FERNHILL:

We will begin to have Mass at Mercy Fernhill for smaller groups of residents. Mass will be fortnightly for a start so as to be able to have Mass for all residents over the next couple of months. The first Mass will be next Tuesday at 10.30am. There can be no external visitors for these Masses.

RAFFLE

Normally we have a raffle for our twin parish in East Timor—Remexio coinciding with the Feast of the Sacred Heart and our annual dinner. Of course we have not been able to have it this year.

However if anyone would like to make a contribution to our twin parish and our education initiative there, please don't hesitate to hand in any offering you would like to make.

These can be handed in at Masses, or to the Presbytery.

If anyone is ill, please do not hesitate to call Fr Frank (9598 1511)

If a funeral is required, again please contact Fr Frank to make arrangements (9598 1511).

If anyone wishes to go to Confession, please call Fr Frank to make an appointment (9598 1511)

NEW PROJECTOR IN THE CHURCH:

Many parishioners will be pleased to hear that we have installed a new projector in the Church which will improve the clarity of the words projected onto the screen. This was done last Thursday.

For those who do not have access to the website, there will be copies of the Readings for each Sunday Mass, available on the white board at the front doors of the Church.

Any other information will be given on the Website and placed on the white board at the front of the Church.

Be careful of simple words said often.

“Amen” makes demands like an unrelenting schoolmaster: fierce attention to all that is said; no apathy, no preoccupation, no prejudice permitted.

“Amen”: We are present. We are open.
We harken. We understand
Here we are; we are listening to your word.

“Amen” makes demands like a signature on a dotted line: sober bond to all that goes before; no hesitation, no half-heartedness, no mental reservation allowed.

“Amen”: We support. We approve.
We are of one mind. We promise.
May this come to pass. So be it.

Be careful when you say “Amen”.

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

Silence is an instrument that plays in many keys, is appropriate to many moods. What all good forms of silence have in common is that they lead us to the point where we discover the limitations of speech and action, that point which is the threshold of mystery. The term "mystery" itself derives from a profoundly ancient word which probably meant covering one's mouth, thus being silent before that of which human language cannot speak. "Let us prepare ourselves to celebrate these sacred mysteries".
