THE 'WATCH' ON HOLY THURSDAY NIGHT : It is the tradition to keep a watch in prayer from the end of the Holy Thursday liturgy until midnight. This is a response to Jesus' words to his first disciples to 'keep watch' with him during his Agony in the Garden. There is a timetable on the Notice Board where parishioners can fill in a roster to Keep Watch. The time is divided into half-hour periods.

We as a parish keep watch through the presence of some members of the parish being present there until midnight.
